

P

IS FOR

PADDLE BOARDING

Adaptive paddle boards involve a stand up board, an all-terrain surf chair, a ramp allowing the wheelchair user to roll onto the board, and a mechanism to lock it in place. Outriggers on either side lend stability as the rider skims across the water. Advanced paddlers can remove these outriggers once they have mastered their balance.